The image shows a page from a medieval manuscript with ten staves of musical notation. The notation is in mensural style, with square neumes on a four-line red staff. The lyrics are written in a Gothic script below the staves. A large, ornate initial 'P' in blue and red is positioned at the end of the text on the bottom staff. The page is numbered 'iii.' at the top.

A handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation includes various note values, rests, and clefs. The score is organized into three systems of three staves each. The first system has a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. The second system has a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. The third system has a treble clef on the top staff and a bass clef on the bottom staff. There are some faint, illegible markings between the staves, possibly representing lyrics or performance instructions. The paper is aged and shows some staining.
